“National Unity Day”

Rashtriya Ekta Diwas Celebrations

Introduction

India is a vibrant and diverse nation with many people of different castes and religions, speaking different languages are living together in complete harmony. National unity is significant for construction of a complete nation with the aim of “One India, Excellent India” (Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat). It was aptly said by the Iron man of India Shri Vallabh Bhai Patel “Manpower without Unity is not a strength unless it is harmonized and united properly, then it becomes a spiritual power”. Good relationship among the people of the nation is a binding force that brings peace and development and also enable us to unify against various threats of enemies.

National Unity Day is an initiative celebrated every year to commemorate Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel’s birth anniversary. Sardar Patel was born on 31st of October in 1875 in Gujarat. He was first Home Minister and one of the founding fathers of the Republic of India. He was a great social leader who worked enormously for the integration of people to make India a united and independent nation. He united 565 princely states to give India her present identity. National Unity Day initiative was introduced by the Government of India and inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in 2014. In an official statement for Rashtriya Ekta Diwas (National Unity Day) by the Ministry of Home Affairs quotes that the National Unity Day “will provide an opportunity to re-affirm the inherent strength and resilience of our nation to withstand the actual and potential threats to the unity, integrity and security of our country”. Run for Unity is a nationwide campaign organized to celebrate this occasion which signifies peace and harmony among the fellow citizens of the country. Unity in diversity will always remain the prime pillars for the effervescent democracy of our vast nation and a key to its global success.

Programme

Acharya Narendra Dev College, University of Delhi observed the National Unity Day on 2nd of November 2016 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel. This event was organized by the members of National Service Scheme unit of the college. This event will not only carry the message of “Unity in Diversity” but also permeate the youth with values assimilated by the knowledge and respect about the country’s diverse legacy. There was an active participation of students and staff members in organizing the event and also pronounced involvement as goodwill ambassador in spreading the message about national safety, security and unity.

Pledge Ceremony

The throng of activities started with a pledge or oath taking ceremony that embarked the spirit of unity among the fellow students. The following pledge had been taken by the students:

“I solemnly pledge that I dedicate myself to preserve the unity, integrity and security of Nation and also strive hard to spread this message among my fellow countrymen. I take this Pledge in Spirit of unification of my country which was made possible by the vision and actions of late Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. I also solemnly resolve to make my own contribution to ensure internal security of my Country”

RASHTRIYA EKTA SAPTAH – NSS IPCW

The NSS Unit of IPCW is observing Rashtriya Ekta Saptah to celebrate the birth anniversary of Sardar Patel.

The first three scheduled events were collectively held on 2nd November whereby students participated in large numbers.

The oath ceremony took place and the students pledged to serve the society in its best interest.

This was followed by a “run for unity” in which the NSS volunteers participated.

Thereafter the film “Sardar” was screened to make students and volunteers aware about the life and ideology of Vallab Bhai Patel. Students enjoyed watching the minute details of the Satyagrah Movement and noticed how the Sardar contributed to unite the entire country.

This is to inform that a report on the above events could not be mailed on a day-to-day basis due to non availability of students because of the ongoing festivities and now they are also busy with their academic commitments with the end semester exams round the corner. The inconvenience is regretted.

RASHTRIYA EKTA SAPTAH

NSS Unit of Kalindi College organised Rashtriya Ekta Saptah from 31st October to 6th November, 2016. The purpose behind it was to cater the feeling of realization about the power and most importantly the true meaning of it. Various events were organised during this Unity Week so as to complement the endeavours.

The Unity week began with the Oath taking ceremony where a large number of students took pledge to preserve unity, integrity and security of the nation.

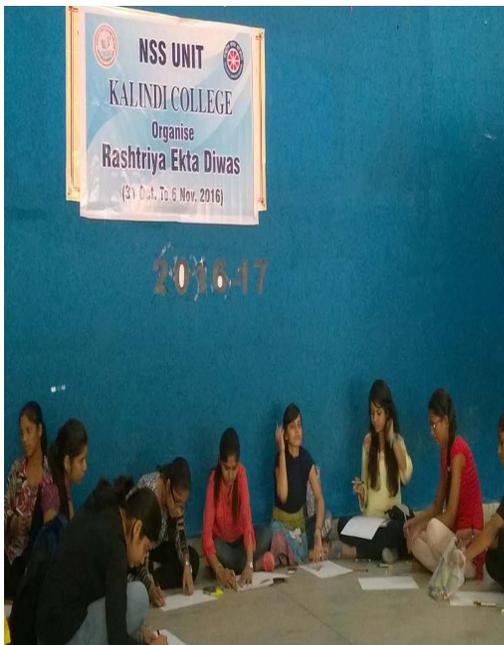

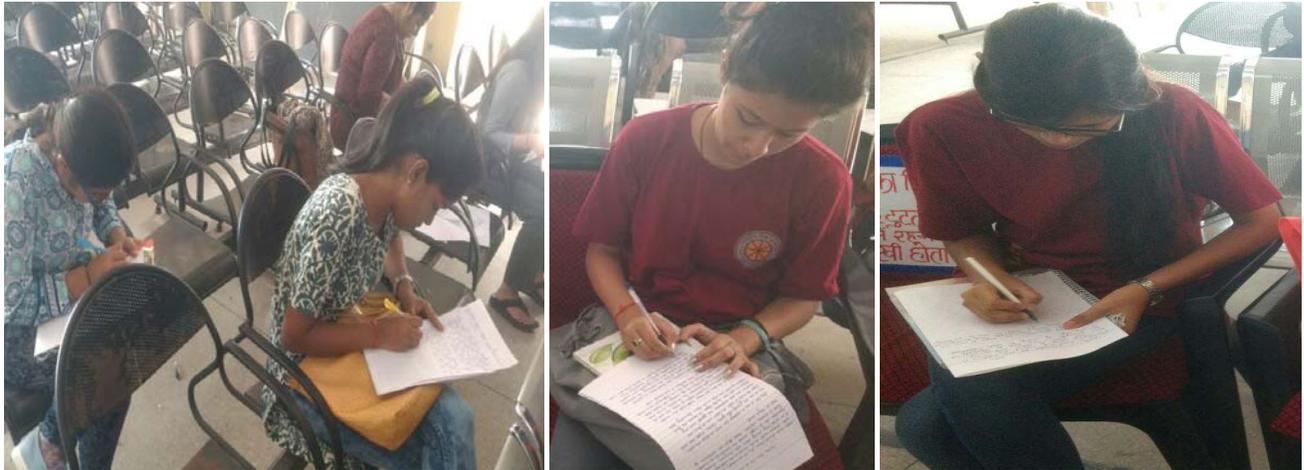

A documentary screening was organized in sangam parisar. The documentary was related to life of Sardar Vallabhai Patel.

A thought provoking and informative street play on 'Unity' was performed by NSS volunteers and received huge applause from the audience.

Slogan writing on theme 'Unity' and Essay Writing Competition on topic 'Relevance of Sardar Patel in today's world' was also organized within the same week. A large number of students from various streams participated in both the events.
