National Voter's Day

National Voter's Day or Rashtriya Matdata Diwas is celebrated every year on 25th January. This day was first celebrated in 2011 to mark Election Commission's Foundation Day. Through National Voter's Day, the Election Commission's objective is to increase the enrollment of voters, especially of the newly eligible ones. Working on this objective, on 25th January, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Gargi, along with the Political Science Department organized a pledge taking ceremony, to celebrate the right to vote and the vibrant democracy of India. This was the 8th National Voter's Day and was used to spread awareness among the students, the new eligible voters regarding effective participation in the electoral process. The session began by educating the students about the importance of voting and how each vote matters in democracy, how the electoral voting sustains the democracy. Further the pledge was taken in both Hindi and English. A lot of students proudly took the pledge, indicating that the youngsters today are aware of their roles and responsibilities. The session ended with a promise to exercise the right to vote to push the country ahead by appointing a responsible authority.

National Voters' Day

(25th January, 2018)

NSS Hansraj celebrated the National Voters' Day on 25th January by taking the Voters' Pledge to uphold ethical electoral participation among the college students. Around 60 students participated in the event.

The pledge was a celebration of the vibrant democracy of India with an aim to encourage youngsters of the country to participate in the electoral process and exercise their franchise. NSS Hansraj also received appreciation from the Election Commission for organizing Voter ID camp in the college to bridge the gap between the students and the potential voters. This initiative saw a great response with students showing up in huge numbers to get their Voter ID cards made.

National Voter's Day:

25th January is observed as National Voter's Day every year since 2011; in order encourage young voters to take part in the electoral process.

National Service Scheme of Kirori Mal College celebrated, the „National Voters Day“, to impart knowledge about the voting procedure.

The significance of this event was to encourage youngsters, who have reached the age of 18, of our country to participate in the political process, by registering themselves in electoral rolls and exercise their franchise.

Dr. Nasim Zaidi, former CEC inspired us a lot as he says that, National Voter's Day is mark of the power of every individual vote and voter's participation in the democratic process is integral to the successful running of any democracy and a very basis of wholesome democratic elections.

Significance:

The event started with discussion over significance of voting and how “Voters are the bedrock of the institution of democracy”, NSS program officer and Dr. Satyendra Kumar Sir described National Voter’s Day as a celebration of democracy and emphasised on the importance of every single vote.

Pledge:

All the members of National Service Scheme along with Dr Satyendra Kumar Sir pledged to uphold the democratic traditions of the country and pledged to vote fearlessly, without being influenced by any factor.

The event ended with a firm determination by everyone to participate in electoral process.

Voting is our basic right and by voting, one makes their voices be heard and register their opinions regarding the governors of the State.

It is the duty of all individuals to exercise their right to vote and choose their representatives as and when they reach the voting age.

25 January: NSS-LSR organized an oath-taking ceremony to celebrate the annual Voters' Day.

The oath-taking ceremony took place on Thursday, 25th January at the Amphitheater in college. Tripti Bassi, the NSS-LSR Program Officer, read out the oath for all the students present. The NSS volunteers at LSR pledged that they would participate in every election fearlessly. They also swore to not be influenced by race, caste, community, language and other factors and exercise their constitutional right, freely and fairly.

As citizens of India, they vowed to abide by the pledge.

The Voters' Day is a reminder of the great strength India has as the largest democracy in the world. The celebration of the day is an assertion of the need for the youth to use universal adult franchise for the betterment of the nation.
